The Baltimore Office of Promotion & The Arts is looking for enthusiastic, creative and talented interns to be a part of the first ever Camp Creative Intern Cohort! The Camp Creative Intern positions are part-time, paid, positions that will provide exposure to various aspects of developing, implementing and managing a weeklong creative camp for children.

Camp Creative workshops are for the committed as well as the curious young artist. During these sessions children will work on developing ideas for creating original writing and/or visual art pieces while collaborating with other like-minded young people. In the mornings, students ages 8 to 14 will work in age-based groups with professional teaching artists to develop their craft. In the afternoon, the students will experience a variety of different electives, including spoken word poetry, improv and performance or painting. The week-long camp culminates in a final showcase on Friday afternoons where parents, family and friends are invited to experience their children’s creations!

Position Description
Camp Creative Interns serve as camp counselors and teaching artists who are studying or who already have demonstrated expertise in their respective field. We're looking for enthusiastic young arts professionals who have experience in spoken word, drama, singing/songwriting or dance. In addition to running elective classes for kids, Interns will also supervise lunch hour and clean up after classes end. Interns are also responsible for hosting an end of week showcase for student work.

Qualifications
- Degrees are not required for this position however you will need to demonstrate your skill level and ability to manage a class full of kids on your own.
- A strong background in the arts is highly preferred.
- Due to the nature of the position's daily interaction with children, Camp Creative Interns will have to undergo a background check prior to starting.

Hours & Compensation
- Interns will be paid $11/hour
- Interns generally work 22 hours per week Monday-Friday during selected camp weeks which are listed below. Daily schedule is 12:30 pm – 5:00 pm.
  - April 6-10th
  - June 29th - July 3rd
  - July 6th - July 10th

Application Deadlines & Instructions
March 20th (for April Camp session)
May 30th (for June & July sessions)

Please send your resume and cover letter to humanresources@promotionandarts.org. No phone calls accepted.