

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE
September 14, 2020

For media inquiries only,
contact: Tracy Baskerville
Santiago Nocera
401-533-2517

MEDIA ADVISORY
THE BALTIMORE PUBLIC ART COMMISSION
MEETING RESCHEDULED FOR TUESDAY, SEPTEMBER 15, 2020
Meeting to be held virtually

WHO/WHAT:

The Baltimore Public Art Commission (PAC) has rescheduled its September 2020 meeting to Tuesday, September 15, 2020. The PAC is responsible for the administering of Baltimore City's 1% For Public Art Program, as well as the review and approval of all gifts of permanent public art to the city of Baltimore.

WHEN:

Tuesday, September 15, 2020, 2:30 – 3:30 PM

WHERE:

The September Public Art Commission meeting will be held virtually. For anyone interested in joining, please contact Kirk Shannon-Butts, Public Art & Curation Manager, at KSButts@promotionandarts.org.

AGENDA:

- Call to Order
- Transition into New Role - Public Art & Curation Manager (Kirk Shannon-Butts)
- Art in August - Review (B2020, Artist Pop-Up, Virtual Artist Café, Online Artists' Market)
- Public Art in Schools Deaccession Process
- Clifton and Morgan Art Update
- Commissioners Terms
- Financial Disclosure Forms
- Questions
- Adjourn Meeting

The agenda is available at promotionandarts.org. To arrange special accommodations (interpreter, hearing, vision), please contact Kirk Shannon-Butts, Public Art & Curation Manager, at KSButts@promotionandarts.org.

###